Step 4: Prayer of Obedience

Now, write out or pray an "I will" prayer. It's a prayer of commitment that conveys how you'll respond to what the Holy Spirit told you to do. Remember, it may be a truth about God that you're to dwell on; it's not always an outward action. As you practice this living conversation, the reflection time will become more and more important. Because this is a living conversation, you should expect God to impress thoughts upon you. He wants you to know Him better and better (Eph, 1:17)! He will never condemn or belittle you—those thoughts come from us or the enemy. Turn them over to God to handle. He will speak encouragement, direction and wisdom.

WHAT GOD THINKS ABOUT YOU AND WANTS FOR YOU

- The Lord appeared to us in the past saying: "I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with unfailing kindness. (Jeremiah 31:3 NIV)
- Jesus said, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and most important commandment." (Matthew 22:37-38)
- There is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit who gives life has set you free from the law of sin and death. (Romans 8:1-2 NIV)
- I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, love the LORD your God, obey Him, and remain faithful to Him. For He is your life. (Deut. 30:19-20)
- For God loved the world in this way: He gave His One and Only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life. (John 3:16)
- The one who has My commands and keeps them is the one who loves Me. And the one who loves Me will be loved by My Father. I also will love him and will reveal Myself to him. (John 14:21)
- Who can separate us from the love of Christ? Can affliction or anguish or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? No, in all these things we are more than victorious through Him who loved us [Nothing] will have the power to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. (Rom. 8:35, 37, 39)
- This is how we have come to know love: He laid down His life for us. We should also lay down our lives for our brothers. (1 John 3:16)
- God's love was revealed among us in this way. God sent His One and Only Son into the world so that we might live through Him. Love consists in this: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the propitiation for our sins. We love because He first loved us. (1 John 4:9-10, 19)
